AMEND Senate Bill No. 1982***

House Bill No. 2460

by adding the following language as a new subsection (c) to 49-19-104 in Section 1 and redesignating the subsequent subsections accordingly:

(c) The department shall review the employability skills and industry-recognized credential programs proposed by each program provider on the program provider's application, and approve the employability skills and industry-recognized credential programs.

AND FURTHER AMEND by deleting the language "(a)" in 49-19-105 in Section 1.

AND FURTHER AMEND by adding the following language as a new subsection (b) to 49-19-107 in Section 1:

(b)

(1) Each approved program provider shall conduct a survey of individuals for whom the approved program provider received funding and who have graduated with a high school diploma from the program of the approved program provider.

(2) The survey required by this subsection (b) must be conducted no sooner than one (1) year after an individual has graduated with a high school diploma from the program of an approved program provider, and after the first survey, an additional survey of the individual must be conducted in each of the following four (4) consecutive years.

(3) The surveys required by this section must collect the following information about the individual:
